In the year of 2014, I have made a decision to do a PhD and luckily got the scholarship from Chinese government for a position in Fulvio's lab in Utrecht. However, I got the news that the lab will move to Groningen and I will start my PhD there. So I start it in 2015 and spent 4 years on my PhD study in the Department of Cell Biology, UMCG.

Doing a PhD is an important and necessary training for creative thinking, independent research and scientific perspective. I feel extremely grateful and lucky that I could finish my PhD in 4 years. Here, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all those who helped and supported me over the years.

Dear Fulvio, I would like to thank for the opportunity to do a PhD under your supervision. I still could remember the time we wrote our proposal to apply for my scholarship and I am really appreciated your great idea and cautious attitude for our coronavirus projects. I have also made mistakes, but you are so patient that telling me which is the correct way to think and work with. I felt cheerful to discuss the projects with you everytime, and got ideas and confidence from you to go deep into our projects. Thank you for everything, I will go further step by step.

Dear Anke, I am truly inspired by your cool ideas on research. Thank you for your sincere conversations with me and I admire your practical way of thinking about the research and the life.

Thanks to Prof. S.C.D. van Ijzendoorn, Prof. J.M. Smit and Prof. E.J.H.J. Wiertz for reading, commenting on and approving this thesis. I am also grateful to Anke that the great comments on my thesis writing and suggestions on especially the perfective writing for this thesis.

I would like to thank in particular my paranymphs, Pauline and Xingdong. Pauline, you are the most ethuastic person I have ever met and I am so grateful for helping my PhD study and organizing my party. I enjoyed working with you and making jokes. Thank you to bring me loads of fun and unforgettable moments. Xingdong, thanks for living together with me and sharing your best moments with me!

Dear Muriel, thank you for all your help in the lab and sharing our stories. I am so appreciated that you give me nice suggestions when I feel down. Best wishes to you and your family!

Dear grumpy Mario, you are very wise, kind and working so efficient. Thank for your suggestions on my and our projects and I learned a lot from our discussions with your nice and clear explanations, especially the story of apple seeds!

Dear Idil, thank you for all your help on my experiments, thesis and also my English. I enjoy my time to be in the same office with you, you are always patient and so experienced in autophagy field. It is also full of fun to spend the spare time and I have loads of nice memories with you that I will never forget.

Dear Franzi, thank you for supervising me at the beginning of my PhD and I started it easily with your help. You are really generous and kind person. I learned the cookie making from you and like the Angel Eyes a lot! I consider you as my family and we always share happiness or tough moments together. Best wishes to you and Steffen!

Dear Ralph, you are really a nice and interesting guy and I enjoyed the nice moments with you in the lab. Thank you for sharing your story with me and helping me with everything in the lab!

Dear Nienke, you are very smart and warm-hearted. You have went through a really tough time and I am really appreciated your brave! You are so great and I wish you all my best!

Dear Jana and Susana, we have been working together for 1 year and always feel happy to talk with both of you. I still could remember I improved my English with Jana and got nice suggestions from you when I started my days here. Susan, you are organized, warm-hearted and sweet, and I am very excited you got you PhD!

Dear Ruben, you are one of the most working hard person in our lab and you are always the “sign” of morning. Thanks for giving me great suggestions in my projects and cannot wait to meet your little son!

Dear Nicole, you are extremely a nice and interesting girl and I enjoyed the moments with you to be in the DCB party committee, we have done a such great job! Thanks for warm-greetings from you and best wishes to you!

Dear Vincent, I am so happy that you are my first Master student I have supervised in the lab and you did a fantastic job! I have learned a lot from this supervision. Best greetings to you and your family!
